

November Newsletter

Hello Qualified Referral Sources!

Welcome to November and the season of gratitude. This is the time of year that we stop and reflect on what we have to be thankful for in our lives. In that spirit, we would like to invite you to share with us what you are thankful for this year. If you are game, please reply to this email with your responses.

Thank you all for your continued support and for trusting us with the youth you support!

Funding Opportunity for Schools and Districts for Suicide Prevention

The Office of Suicide Prevention released a Request for Applications on November 1 for Colorado public schools and districts to support suicide prevention training, policy development, and school climate improvement strategies. The funding announcement and application materials are posted here.

We Need Testimonials

We would love to start collecting testimonials from our Qualified Referral Sources that we can share on our website. If you are willing and would like to provide a testimonial, please reply to this email and make sure to include that you give permission for us to share on the website. Oh, and these can be video or written. Have fun with it!

Feedback About Making Referrals

We would love to also hear any feedback about how COVID and/or virtual learning has impacted your ability to make referrals. Please reply to this email with any feedback that you would like to share.

Colorado Gives Day

Second Wind Fund is gearing up for Colorado Gives Day on December 8th! If you would like to support SWF, you can now schedule a donation at: www.coloradogives.org/secondwindfund. All donations scheduled for December 8th are matched by an incentive fund. Helping to spread the word about the importance of SWF's program is also really helpful! Keep an eye out on our social media pages for posts to share/like. Thank you for all of your support!
